Tinmog Christmas Dinner Saturday 8th December 2018 at the Mullion Cove Hotel.

On a very windy, blustery day, 21 Tinmogs arrived at the Mullion Cove Hotel for our Annual Christmas Dinner. Most of us managed to get into the hotel without being blown away up to Helston. Tea and coffee and general chatting was enjoyed in a warm lounge. Our members gathered together again at 7.00pm and then sat down to enjoy a very convivial evening in the dining room. Various topics of conversation ensued, though noticeably, one particular topic in the current news was omitted. Afterwards we had a lounge to ourselves, and our Centre Secretary thanked John and Lesley Reynolds who had organised this event so well and ensured that we were all looked after. A warm welcome was extended to David and Jane Melton who travelled from Hereford to be with us.

After an enjoyable breakfast, we said our farewells and look forward to meeting at events in the New Year.

We will be going to a different hotel for next year's Christmas Dinner, further details to follow.

November Lunch at Kingswood Bar and Restaurant

The Thursday lunches have proved very popular this year, and the November lunch was no exception. Paul and Jackie organised this month's event and seventeen Tinmogs found their way to St Austell on November 8th for an excellent lunch. There were even a few Morgans despite the miserable weather. Paul and Jackie were thanked for finding such a good venue, and we must also thank Bob and Pat for coming up with the idea earlier this year. The lunches seem to have replaced Noggins for the time being at least. Maybe we are all getting too old to venture out in the evenings!
