WELCOME TO THE OCTOBER 2019 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Tinmoggers

In October, 12 members of Tinmog enjoyed a lunch at the Kingswood Restaurant at London Apprentice, organised by Paul and Jackie who braved the elements in their three-wheeler. Weather-wise, it was not too good a day for Morgans! Since this outing, the weather has deteriorated and combined with the clock returning to GMT, it's not too good for touring with the hood down. Tinmog had hoped to make a Sunday visit to the Christmas Garland at Cotehele, a National Trust house on the banks of the Tamar. However, David and Doreen did a recci but the place was overflowing with visitors. It has been decided to postpone the visit until next year, probably making it a mid-week visit. Cotehele House was the ancestral home of the Edgcumbe family and has a mill, and quay. The Garland is made from ornamental grasses and flowers from the estate and is 60 feet long and is on view during the Christmas period.

Later in November, we will be attending a Sunday lunch at Mithian neat St. Agnes which will give us a chance of taking out Morgans and enjoying a coast run should we so wish. In December, our Christmas meal will be taken at the Ilsington Country House which is near Haytor, Dartmoor, a venue that has been used by us for several weekend Morgan Breaks. Some members are staying for two nights and are hoping to explore the area, weather permitting. Some of us hope to visit the Exeter Christmas Market as it will not be too far away during the day. The dress code will be lounge or dinner suits, and ladies can put on their finery for the official dinner on the Friday! On Saturday, dress code is the hotel standard, smart casual. It should be a good event.

The annual awards are due to be awarded in December, with that in mind, please let me know the mileage you have covered in your Morgan in the last 12 months, or the difference in mileage in your last two MOT certificates to enter this competition.
